

Ensemble Biography - Vocalodie

Short (approx. 700 characters)

Vocalodie is a rising vocal ensemble devoted with deep passion to the art of a cappella singing. Rich in colors and with finely tuned balance, the ensemble creates innovative and inclusive concert experiences that touch its audiences. The eight singers of the Vienna-based ensemble love to cross boundaries, weaving together repertoire covering the refined polyphony of the Renaissance up to demanding works by contemporary composers as well as charming original arrangements – shaping concerts that inspire.
